

CORE

The word 'CORE' is rendered in a white, serif font. Each letter is intricately intertwined with a thin, golden-brown line that forms a decorative vine or scrollwork pattern. Small, stylized leaves and berries are scattered along these lines, adding a natural, organic feel to the typography.

CORE WINE PAIRING

Working closely with the kitchen team, our sommeliers have carefully selected the following wines to be paired.

100ml glass per course

2016 Savoie 'Monfarina', Domaine Giachino, France

The name Monfarina takes its name from the traditional Piedmontese dance. Made from the most planted white grape in Savoie Jacquère, grown on the marl and limestone outcrops of Mount Granier, Domaine Giachino have been fully certified as organic producers since 2006.

2013 Chardonnay, Bachelder, Willamette Valley, Oregon, U.S.A.

Thomas Bachelder together with his wife Mary Delany started producing high quality cool climate Chardonnay in three regions, Burgundy, Oregon and Niagara starting from the 2009 vintage.

2004 Rioja Reserva Blanco 'Viña Tondonia', Bodegas R. López de Heredia, Spain

Founded by Don Rafael López de Heredia y Landeta in the mid nineteenth century shortly after French negotiants visited the Rioja region to find alternative sources of grapes for wine after phylloxera decimated their vineyards.

2015 Pinot Noir, Elio Ottin, Valle d'Aosta, Italy

Planted in 1989 the vines for this wine are on steep south-facing terraces at 590m above sea level, organically farmed burgundy clones, originally sold to a local co-op until Elio in 2007 started his own label.

2004 Clos du Marquis, Saint Julien, Bordeaux Château Léoville Las Cases (Magnum)

Often referred to as Château Léoville Las Cases 2nd wine, this is in fact not true as the fruit source comes from different vines to that of Léoville Las Cases, from 2007 the true 2nd wine of Léoville Las Cases was produced as Petit Lion du Marquis de Las Cases, however all 3 wines are produced by the same team.

2009 Riesling spätlese, Graacher Himmelreich, Joh.Jos. Prum, Mosel, Germany

With 33.5 hectares planted with Riesling on steeply-sloping Devon schist soils, Weingut J.J. Prum is without question one of the finest estates in the Mosel, the estate has been run by Manfred Prum since 1969.

2017 Moscato d'Asti, Saracco, Piedmont, Italy

Located in the village of Castiglione Tinella, the winery owner Paolo Saracco also has a 4 star hotel Albergo Castiglione adjacent to the vineyards, Paolo's great-grandfather Luigi started growing Moscato grapes in the early 1900's.
